

Hi,

Greetings from Clearstate.

Clearstate, a business of the Economist Intelligence Unit, offers specialised healthcare market tracking intelligence complimented by strategic advisory services to help medical device, pharmaceutical, biotechnology, and healthcare service firms understand their current and potential markets, and implement pragmatic and innovative strategies to ultimately tap into new growth opportunities within Asia Pacific.

My name is Yueh Li, field sourcing executive and I am looking for a law intern to work with us for a desk research project. The intern will be paid a stipend in appreciation for the work done and submit data online.

Project details are as followed:

1. Project Scope: Gathering of legal data composing of 3 years back data of # of medical malpractice lawsuits, and loss and claims statistics (value claimed, value won, rate of winning/losing) by medical specialty

2. Approach: Collecting data from Ministry of Law, Ministry of health, Department of statistics and Physician associations, other law organisations or any other agencies as advised by outsourcers

3. Timeline: 6 weeks

4. Country: Thailand

Interested applicants are requested to send in their resume to yuehli.tan@clearstate.com

Thank you for your kind facilitation.

Best regards
