Dear Exchange Partner,

Warm greetings from Aoyama Gakuin University (AGU), Tokyo, Japan! We are pleased to offer another exciting opportunity for your students to learn about Japanese culture and society in the heart of Tokyo. Applications open on March 1st! Places will be provided on a first-come-first-served basis.

AGU International Short Program

"DISCOVER THE REAL TOKYO; from Kabuki to Kawaii" (July 13 –31, 2015)

Our three-week intensive program featuring Japanese culture is held at AGU, which is situated in the coolest and most culturally vibrant area of Tokyo. The program, delivered in English, includes lectures, field work, project learning and a trip to downtown Tokyo. At the end of the course, students are expected to give a presentation on what they learned.

- Entry requirements: Students at non-Japanese universities
NB Non-native English speakers must be upper-intermediate to advanced-level users of English
- Capacity: 15
- Main program fee: JPY 90,000 (including tuition, fieldwork and a bus trip costs)
- Accommodation fee: From JPY 44,200 to JPY 60,500 (for 18 nights)
- Topics on the program: Cross-cultural communication; Kabuki (Japanese traditional performing arts); kawaii; tourism; Japanese animation; current affairs of Japanese society; Japanese cultural policy: Japanese fashion and lifestyle, etc.

For those who also wish to study Japanese language, a minimum of 13 hours of Japanese lessons at EF Tokyo, from 6th to July 10th, are available at an additional charge. The AGU International Short Program is a perfect introduction for students who plan to complete a year-long study in Japan in the future, and for students who are simply interested in Japanese culture but want to experience something more than just sightseeing. Participants will be paired up with Japanese student buddies, who will provide them with the opportunities for language and cultural exchanges.
