

Passakorn Yeenang Faculty of Law, Chiang Mai University 239 Huay Kaew Road, Suthep Subdistrict, Mueang District, Chiang Mai 50200 E-mail: Passakorn.y@cmu.ac.th

Educational Background

- 2021
  - Master of Laws (LL.M.), Chiang Mai University
- 2016
  - Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.), Chiang Mai University (Second Class Honors)

Work Experience

- 2019 - 2020
  - Project Officer for Database Management and Dissemination, Legal Research and Development Center, Faculty of Law, Chiang Mai University
- 2024
  - Lecturer, Faculty of Law, Chiang Mai University

Academic Experience

- 2023
  - Co-researcher, “Law and Society Research Group Project,” funded by Chiang Mai University
- 2022
  - Co-researcher, “Preparation of Subordinate Laws in Thailand for Promoting Human Genetic Data Collection and Processing for Research with Respect to Personal Data Rights,” presented to the Health Systems Research Institute
  - Co-researcher, “Synthesis of Legal Knowledge to Support Fair Benefit Sharing from Digital Data,” presented to the King Prajadhipok's Institute
  - Researcher, “Human Trafficking and Forced Labor in Agriculture: Access to Justice for Migrant Workers in Northern Thailand,” in collaboration with the Human Rights and Development Foundation, presented to ASEAN–Australia Counter Trafficking (ASEAN-ACT)

- Researcher, “Study for the Development of a Handbook for Promoting and Protecting Human Rights in the Management and Care of Public Assemblies,” presented to the National Human Rights Commission of Thailand
- Assistant Researcher, “Extraordinary Deaths: Legal Operations and the Struggles of Victims,” under the Political Violence and Non-Violent Conflict Resolution Research Plan, funded by the National Research Council of Thailand (NRCT)
- Legal Research Team Member, “Development of Products/Services According to the BEDO Concept: Development of Community Ecosystem Services,” funded by the Biodiversity-Based Economy Development Office (Public Organization)
- 2021
  - Workgroup Member, “Community Justice Lessons Learned from 5 Case Studies in Chiang Mai, Chiang Rai, Songkhla, and Bangkok,” focusing on “Injustice in Digital Platform Occupations,” funded by the National Health Commission Office (NHCO)
  - Assistant Researcher, “Reducing Justice Inequality for Vulnerable Groups by Studying Problems and Protection Measures for Human Rights Defenders in Thailand,” responsible for field interviews and interview synthesis, funded by the National Research Council of Thailand (NRCT)
  - Workgroup Member, “Summary Report on Problems, Situations, and Solutions during the COVID-19 Pandemic among Urban Poor,” under the “Pun-Im” Project, funded by the Health Promotion Fund (ThaiHealth)
- 2020
  - Assistant Researcher, “Development of Measures to Protect Citizens from State Surveillance,” funded by the New Researcher Development Fund, Chiang Mai University
- 2019
  - Workgroup Member, “Supporting the Development and Promotion of Health Policies for Ethnic Groups, Indigenous Peoples, and Migrant Populations,” under the Health Promotion Fund (ThaiHealth), developing a handbook for policy promotion
- 2018

- Workgroup Member, “Developing Legal Systems to Support Vulnerable Groups Affected by 21st Century Challenges,” responsible for legal analysis
- 2017
  - Assistant Researcher, “Health and Welfare Access for Migrant Workers in Chiang Mai’s Construction Sector,” funded by the Friedrich Ebert Foundation, Thailand

Academic Service Experience

- Trainer for the “Legal Assistance Training Program for Legal Assistants,” held on July 8-13, 2019, at Mae La Refugee Camp, Tha Song Yang District, Tak Province
- Speaker at the post-screening discussion of the documentary “The Monopoly of Violence” at the Faculty of Law, Chiang Mai University, organized by LAW Crisis x Documentary Club, October 12, 2022
- Speaker at the seminar “46 Years of October 6: Experience, Memory, and Impunity,” organized by the Department of History, Chiang Mai University, October 6, 2022
- Speaker at the creative campaign “Human Library: Memories Melody” in collaboration with the Lanyim Theatre Group, held at Tha Phae Gate, Chiang Mai, March 17, 2023

Training Participation

- Participated in the “Volunteers Creative Space: Learning Design Camp” workshop, February 26-28, 2020, organized by the Office of Justice Affairs
- Participated in the “Legal Research in Social Sciences: An Anthropological Perspective” training program, June 5-7, 2019, at the Faculty of Law, Chiang Mai University, organized by the Legal Research and Development Center
- Participated in the workshop “International Standards and Regional Lessons from Europe and America on Enforced Disappearances,” organized by the International Commission of Jurists (ICJ) and the Cross Cultural Foundation, April 27-28, 2024

Academic Works

- Research/Research Analysis
  - Lessons learned from interviews and focus groups in the research project “Preparation of Subordinate Laws in Thailand for Promoting Human Genetic

Data Collection and Processing for Research with Respect to Personal Data Rights,” presented to the Health Systems Research Institute

- Literature review and case studies in the research project “Synthesis of Legal Knowledge to Support Fair Benefit Sharing from Digital Data,” presented to the King Prajadhipok's Institute
- Research report for the project “Development of a Handbook for Promoting and Protecting Human Rights in the Management and Care of Public Assemblies,” presented to the National Human Rights Commission of Thailand
- Legal and policy analysis related to health systems, safety protection, and occupational health for migrant workers in temporary/seasonal employment under the project for developing and promoting health and safety policies for temporary and seasonal migrant workers in border areas
- Risk analysis for young populations and readiness for family formation in the research project “Developing Legal Systems to Support Vulnerable Groups Affected by 21st Century Challenges”
- Synthesis of interviews with human rights defenders under the project “Reducing Justice Inequality for Vulnerable Groups by Studying Problems and Protection Measures for Human Rights Defenders in Thailand”
- Summary report on problems, situations, and solutions during the COVID-19 pandemic among urban poor under the “Pun-Im” project
- Research on “Development of Measures to Protect Citizens from State Surveillance”
- Study on legal restrictions related to coffee cultivation in conservation areas under the project for developing products/services according to the BEDO Concept: Development of Community Ecosystem Services
- Literature review and case studies in the research project “Supporting Cyber Group Rights to Express on Natural Resource and Environmental Issues,” funded by the King Prajadhipok's Institute
- Research report on “Health and Welfare Access for Migrant Workers in Chiang Mai’s Construction Sector”
- Knowledge package on being insured for migrant workers in Thailand under the project for developing and promoting health policies for ethnic groups, indigenous peoples, and migrant populations under the Health Promotion Fund (ThaiHealth)

- Lessons learned case study report on “Injustice in Digital Platform Occupations” as part of the complete report on Community Justice Lessons Learned from 5 Case Studies in Chiang Mai, Chiang Rai, Songkhla, and Bangkok

Thesis

- Passakorn Yeenang. “Law in Violence, Violence in Law: Legal Impunity of the Thai State in Suppressing Political Protesters” (Master’s Thesis, Faculty of Law, Chiang Mai University, 2021)

Articles

- Presented at the 2nd National Socio-Legal Studies Conference on “Reimagining Thai Legal Landscapes,” titled “The hidden violence in the Thai legal system: A case study of the impunity from political repression by the state” pages 100-112
- Published academic article “Labor Rights Crises in Age of Digital Economy: The conflict between “Rider” and the platform ignored by the state.” in CMU Journal of Law and Social Sciences, pages 84-113, Vol. 14 No. 1 (2021): January-June 2021
- Presented at the 3rd National Socio-Legal Studies Conference on “Reviewing/Discussing/Challenging: Law in Times of Change,” titled “Ordinary people's "capital" and "cost" in pursuing justice against violent governmental officials” pages 307-327
- Published academic article “Based on International Principles? : The Study of the Thai Government’s Measures to Control Public Assembly During 2020 -2022.” in CMU Journal of Law and Social Sciences, pages 84-113, Vol. 17 No. 1 (2024): January-June 2024, pages 106-139

Semi-Academic Articles

- Book review of “The Law is Law” on Illuminations Editions
- Articles published on the Cross Cultural Foundation website
  - “Tracing the (In)Justice Process and Creating Impunity: The Tak Bai Tragedy Case in 2004”

- “1 Year of the Torture and Enforced Disappearance Act: (Part 2) Where Does the Thai State Stand in Protecting Citizens from Enforced Disappearances under International Standards?”
- “1 Year of the Torture and Enforced Disappearance Act: (Part 1) Unresolved Issues Before the Law Becomes a Paper Tiger”
- “Torture Law: The Armor Covering the Bare Lives of Conscripts and Students in the Camp”
- “The Death of Private Wichian: A Reflection on ‘Violence’ as Part of the Thai Military Culture”

Semi-Academic Articles

Illuminations Editions

- Book Review: "The Law is Law" Link

Articles published on the Cross Cultural Foundation website

- Tracing the (In)Justice Process and Creating a State of Impunity: The Tak Bai Tragedy Case in 2004 Link
- 1 Year of the Torture and Enforced Disappearance Act: (Part 2) Where Does the Thai State Stand in Protecting Citizens from Enforced Disappearances Under International Standards? Link
- 1 Year of the Torture and Enforced Disappearance Act: (Part 1) Unresolved Issues Before the Law Becomes a Paper Tiger Link
- Torture Law: The Armor Covering the Bare Lives of Conscripts and Students in the Camp Link
- The Death of Private Wichian: A Reflection on “Violence” as Part of Thai Military Culture Link
- Regarding the Death of Private Wichian Pueksom: Can We Expect Justice in a Military Court? Link
- 6 Years of the “Chaiyaphum Pasae” Case: The Voice of “Victims” When a Single Bullet Destroys More Than One Life Link
- Justice is Not Easy When People Have to Fight Against the State Link

Articles published on the Thai Lawyers for Human Rights website

- How to Write to Look “Wrong”? The Language of Politics in Sombat Thongyoi’s Section 112 Verdict Link
- The “Injustice” Process for Children and Youth Dissidents: Another “Identity” of Thai-Style Power Use Link
- Being Both ‘Actors’ and ‘Victims’: Viewing Thai Society When Children and Youth Criticize the Monarchy – Facing the Authorities Link
- Universal Principles in Juvenile Justice Link
- Constitutional Court Ruling: “Reform Equals Overthrow”: When People Become Thought Criminals Link
- Countering Illegitimate Power with the Law: The Path to Holding the State Accountable for Protest Crackdowns Link
- “State Criminals in State Crimes”: 1 Year Since the Disappearance of “Wanchalearm” Seen Through Criminology Link
- The Thai Injustice Process: State Officials’ Legal Impunity in the 2010 Protest Crackdown Link
- Impunity in the 1992 Black May Incident: Legal Protection of Perpetrators Link
- Success on the Day of (Still) Not Winning: A Case Study of the Emancipation Lawsuit in America Link
- Legitimizing “Violence”: The Case of the Thai State’s Crackdown on Protests Link
- Failure in Victory: The 14th October That Did Not Establish the Rule of Law Link
- Traces of Fear and “Knowing It’s Wrong” During the Drafting of the Amnesty Law for Those Involved in the 6th October Incident Link
- Law and Political Repression Leading to the “Crisis of Legitimacy” (Again) Link
- The “Hidden” Violence in Disappearances: When “Wanchalearm” Was Not the Only “Victim” Link

Articles published on The Momentum website

- Vulnerable and Highly Risky: Viewing K-pop Idols and Entertainment Artists as ‘Labor’ Link

- How Do Law Textbooks Teach About Section 112 of the Criminal Code? Link
- Discrimination Due to 'Appearance' in the Justice Process Link
- The Bitterness in Beauty: Lives and Working Conditions of Migrant Workers in Chiang Mai's Flower Fields Link
- Learning About Communist Threats Through Thanin Kraivichien's Doctrine and Methods of Communism Textbook Link
- 12 Years After the Red Shirt Crackdown: Creating Perfect Impunity by Law Link
- Inconsistencies Between Legal Provisions and Practices Reflect the Normalized Aberrations in Thailand's Criminal Justice Process Link
- Baristas in Chiang Mai: The Labor Rights Crisis of Coffee Workers in the "Coffee Capital" Link
- A Legal System Reflecting a 'Failed State' Link
- Viewing Law in Dystopian Literature Link
- Legal Studies Under a 'Closed Culture': The Source of Injustice in the Name of Law Link
- 89 Years of Constitution Day and the Thorny Path of the 'People's Constitution' Link
- Section 112 as a Form of Violence Link
- Thailand's Drug Suppression Policy: Reflecting State Violence in the Justice Process Link
- #IWillOpenWhatWillYouDo: Civil Disobedience Against State Orders Amidst Crisis Link
- Abhisit in 1992 vs. Abhisit After 2010 Link
- External Opposition to the Myanmar Coup Is Not 'Interference in Internal Affairs' Link
- Moral Ambiguity Under the Discourse of 'Law Must Be Law' Link
- Enlightenment Is Useless in 'The Country of the Blind' Link
- 'Filter Bubble': An Enclosed Head Covering and Parallel Political Worlds Link